

This Is Just the Day

If you've got an hour,
Now's the time to share it.
If you've got a flower,
Wear it.
This is just the day.

If you've got a plan,
Now's the time to try it.
If you've got an airplane,
Fly it.
This is just the day.

It's the day for seeing all there is to see.
It's the day for being just you, just me.

If you've got a smile,
Now's the time to show it.
If you've got a horn,
Then blow it.
It's the minute to begin it.
This is just the day.
